

OVERDOSES AND CALLING 999

OVERDOSE SCENARIOS

This diagram is a simplification of a range of scenarios which can be complex, with life-changing implications. It is for guidance only. If you or someone else is in trouble, call 999 immediately for an ambulance, and get professional legal advice at the earliest opportunity. Know your rights when questioned and/ or arrested. Anything you say may be used as evidence against you, and others.
